

Global Lifestyle Quick Reference

Living beyond borders with roots, rhythm, and purpose.

The Unbordered Family

Principles

- Freedom of choice: choose where you live, learn, work, and spend family time.
- Flexibility: let schedules adapt around family needs, seasons, and growth.
- Cultural immersion: learn language, food, rituals, customs, and community life.
- Mindful spending: invest in experiences, education, wellbeing, and values.

Choosing bases

- Bali: tropical living, cultural immersion, education options, and local support networks.
- Panama: tax-friendly structures, U.S. access, banking, residency pathways, and strong infrastructure.
- Test short stays before committing long term.

Education on the move

- Blend worldschooling, digital tools, international schools, tutors, nannies, local caretakers, and cultural mentors.
- Use real-world experiences as curriculum.

Daily life

- Keep simple routines for meals, sleep, study, movement, and reflection.
- Use tools such as Wise, Revolut, Airtel/eSIM, XE Currency, Google Workspace, maps, and family planners.

Money planning

- Create a monthly budget for housing, utilities, food, schooling, healthcare, transport, travel, insurance, experiences, and savings.
- Build income streams that support freedom: online business, trading, social media, investing, and partnerships.
